

I would feel comfortable with the above rule change proposal with the following exception. The licensed Amateur radio operator should be required to pass the General exam and above to get phone privileges. The tech class person should only be given privileges in the CW areas.